- People Interested in Trees

Objectives of SOFA

To insure the sound management and appreciation of woodlands, wildlife, and soil and water resources through education and demonstration.

Meetings and Membership Information

Monthly meetings (the second Thursday of each month) offer forestry related programs, guest speakers, discussion with members and informative interaction. Meetings begin with a potluck dinner at 6:15 pm followed by a business meeting and presentation at 7:00 pm at the Endeavor Center of OSU South Centers, 1864 Shyville Road, Piketon. Tours of unique forest resources, private industry, and landowner projects are offered throughout the year.

A monthly newsletter highlights meetings, programs, and field trips, as well as state and national forestry information.
